

Aftermath

The Tea Party

Desperate to take
lost in its wake
time slips away to soon

Pleasures of fear
drawing us near where could we go from hear

waste what we want
we beg and we're bought
and nothing is wrong with us

life in these veins godless and stained glimpses of hope exist

Slanted advance
threatened by chance

and nothing is wrong with us
