The Teardrop Explodes

You said you couldn't find anyone to love you
I said there's more to life than a broken heart dear console you
I've seen it in your eyes
And I've read it in books
Who wants love
Without the looks
Well you said I tend to spend my life chasing rainbows
And I said that's a clichéd phrase and anyway I like it when the rain goes
I've seen it in your eyes
And I've read it in books
Who wants love
Without the looks
Books without looks
Who wants love
Without the looks
And I came a long way before I came across the sea
Oh I did love for you and what did you do for me
Oh but I'm gonna be strong
And it's getting much stronger it may take a week
But it won't take longer
No no no no etc.
