The Tellers

Well I know what you say when I turn and walk away,
I don't dream, I don't fight no I don't try,

Well I know how you feel when people say you ain't real,
Let's have a drink let's have a fight let's be right,

Well I know what you do when people don't like you,
You act like the chief maybe that u'll get you through,

Oh you say you don't know me,
What's you gonna do,
Oh you say you don't know me,
You're nothing I can see you're not that I can see,
oh you say you don't know me,
It's going to your head,
Oh you say you don't know me,
Pink had turned to red, I think you're turning red.
