The Tellers

So, I guess I'm a fker when I saw how You looked at me the other night.
All the landscape is passing slowly in front of my headlights.

Hey no, hey no
Oh hey ho, you don't need me, no, no, no
Oh hey ho, you don't need me, no

So I want to say give me more, say more, give me more,
give me more,
You know I'd die for you,
Little whore.
One day you will see that I'll probably become me.

Hey no, hey no
Oh hey ho, you don't need me, no, no, no
Oh hey ho, you don't need me, no

So I want to say give me more, say more, give me more,
give me more,
You know I'd die for you,
I Little whore.
Live in a bubble,
Slip on the curls,
and I will never understand girls.
Oh oh hey ho
you don't need me, no, no, no
Oh hey ho, you don't need me, no, no, no
Oh hey ho, you don't need me, no

So I want to say give me more, say more, give me more,
give me more,
You know I'd die for you,
Little whore.
