

Home Sweet Home 1313

The Texas Drag Queen Massacre

There's a house at the end of the street,
With tenants that you'd never wanna meet,
Horror beyond your wildest dreams,
From within we hear those haunting screams.

A car pulls up outside this home,
Herman's driving but he's not alone,
A family of frights,
To keep you screaming right through the night.

There's a house of evil fiends,
Something that nobody needs,
I don't care 'cause they're good to me,
Home sweet home,
There's a house of evil fiends,
Something that nobody needs,
I don't care 'cause they're good to me,
Home sweet home 1313.

In the basement Grandpa works away,
Where the family's dragon has to stay,
Spider webs from the chandelier,
This house is the sum of all your fears.

Lily, Marilyn and Eddie,
Werewolf child of the family,
Plenty of scares for me and you,
Don't you wanna be a Munster too?

There's a house of evil fiends,
Something that nobody needs,
I don't care 'cause they're good to me,
Home sweet home,
There's a house of evil fiends,
Something that nobody needs,
I don't care 'cause they're good to me,
Home sweet home 1313.

There's a house of evil fiends,
Something that nobody needs,
I don't care 'cause they're good to me,
Home sweet home,
There's a house of evil fiends,
Something that nobody needs,
I don't care 'cause they're good to me,
Home sweet home 1313,
1313,
1313,
1313.
