

Eternity

The Tiger Lillies

When you cut your throat
When you've got no hope
By a shaft of light from the moon

Will you take the rope
When you've got no hope
And hang yourself from the moon

In the cold blue light
Of a winter's night
I can hear you in your tomb

There'll be no release
Your pain won't cease
For eternity you are doomed

Your suicide
Leaves you to cry
All alone to the moon

God won't give in
It's a mortal sin
For eternity you are doomed

For eternity doomed
