

Father's Song

The Tiger Lillies

Just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
Just another loser
You're just another loser
You're just another
You always tried
You always failed
Just another dream
That went off the rails
Just another loser
Just another loser
You're just another
Just another loser
You're just another loser
Yeah you're just another
Just another nice guy
Trampled in the shit
Just another nice guy
Your face rubbed in it
Just another loser
Just another loser
You're just another
Yeah just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
Animals will cut your throat
And upon your corpse
Each one will gloat
Just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
Yeah just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
It's one small thing
I forgot to say
It doesn't really matter
Matter anyway
Just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
Just another
Just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
Just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
Yeah just another loser
Just another loser
Just another
