

Kill you on a monday

The Tiger Lillies

I'll kill you on a Monday
just for the fun Slash away with my sword
watch your blood runs

Kill you on a Tuesday
make mincemeat of you Smile and laugh
as I run you through

Kill you on a Wednesday
I'll cut off your head Put your head upon a pole celebrate you're dead

I'll kill you on a Thursday blow you to kingdom come Laugh at the grieving of your widow and your grieving son

Kill you on a Friday your blood I'll spill
On Saturday boast
to your daughter ripped and killed

But on Sunday
to the chapel I will go Where god he will thank me for the duty I did show
