

Release me

The Tiger Lillies

Sweet suicide release me
From all of this pain
Another night of torment
Never sunshine always rain

And it never helps the kindness
That people try to show
Just makes it feel more tragic
Release me let me go

I am drowning in the greyness
Suffocating in this grief
Tell me my life is not mine to take
Go ahead, call me a thief

And it never helps the kindness
That people try to show
Just makes it feel more tragic
Release me let me go

I'm drowning in the pain
That my life does make
Broken spirit broken soul
No more can I take

I'm drowning in the moonbeams
The blackest night
Reflecting a glass
I give up the fight

Swallowed up
With no air to breathe
Broken by your words
How they deceive the poisoned by revenge
And bitter spite

I don't care if you're right
Don't care if you're wrong or right
There the water it beckons me
An early grave that waits for me

Sweet suicide release me (2x)
Release me let me go
