

We Started Nothing

The Ting Tings

No one dropped off waiting in despair
Every time I go there's no one there
So tell me, where's the soul, oh, where's the soul?
Submit it's all locked up, so hard to lose control
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
Wait on anew, gonna bet on one today
How it's only all of us, if and butts falling dead
Tell me, where's the soul, oh where's the soul?
If it's been a whole day, it's time to let it go
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't, oh
Now, often we keep giving in with what they say
We're too open when we're only shown one way
And with the offer open opportunity to do
To make a mighty step no insoles in my shoes
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't, oh
Water is cold and the ice is just a face skin deep
All you know, the ice is just a face skin deep
Water is cold and the ice is just a face skin deep
All you know, the ice is just a face skin deep
Water is cold and the ice is just a face skin deep
All you know, the ice is just a face skin deep
