

No More Saying Goodbye

The Trews

We're not together but we're never apart
You're in the palm of my hand, instead of my heart
I get a play by play of you everyday
But I still feel so far away

That's where we left it, safe in the past
We're super connected so the feelings last

You're walking away, what difference does it make?
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
When I see your face it takes me back and I can't erase
There's no more saying goodbye anymore

Here I lie in an empty room
The glow of your words by the light of the moon
The space between us is just a front
'Cause I can see you anytime I want

It used to break my heart when we'd say goodbye
Watching you leave I'd damn near die

You're walking away, what difference does it make?
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
When I see your face it takes me back and I can't erase
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
And I don't even care that this is the end
'Cause I know I'll see you before I see you again
There's nothing to say, what difference does it make?
There's no more saying goodbye anymore

There's no more saying
There's no more saying goodbye
There's no more saying
There's no more saying goodbye
There's no more saying
There's no more saying goodbye
There's no more saying
There's no more saying goodbye

There's no more saying
There's no more saying goodbye
There's no more saying
There's no more saying goodbye
There's no more saying
There's no more saying goodbye

That's where we left it, safe in the past
We're super connected so the feelings last

You're walking away, what difference does it make?
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
When I see your face it takes me back and I can't erase
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
And I don't even care if this is the end
'Cause I know I'll see you before I see you again
There's nothing to say, what difference does it make?
There's no more saying goodbye anymore

There's no more saying goodbye anymore
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
There's no more saying goodbye anymore
