

When I'm With You

The Troggs

I, I hear my heart go bing,
I hear the songbird sing when I'm with you, yeah,
I, I hear the telephone,
Oh, when I'm on my own, on my own with you, yeah.

I see the moon when it don't shine,
I see the flowers before their time,
I hear my voice begin to say that I love you, yeah.

I'm hearing bells before they ring,
I'm hearing choirs before they sing,
I'm hearing things I never heard, now I love you, yeah.

I, I hear my heart go bing,
I hear the songbird sing when I'm with you, yeah,
I, I hear the telephone,
Oh, when I'm on my own, on my own with you, yeah.

I see the moon when it don't shine,
I see the flowers before their time,
I hear my voice begin to say that I love you, yeah.

I, I hear my heart go bing,
I hear the songbird sing when I'm with you, yeah,
I, I, I...
