

Ghosts of Yesterday

The Twins

I saw a slender shadow
Appear close to me
I felt a poison arrow
Enter into me

I knew that I was falling
Before your face took shape
I heard your voice was calling
No mercy, no escape

You said we couldn't be together
But there are some things that you can't resist
I knew it was the last adventure
That it was something that could not be missed

Now you've disappeared forever
Like the ghosts of yesterday
Banished to the land of never
Nothing left to do or say

Now we've ended our endeavour
Like the ghosts of yesterday
Leaving emptiness forever
No redemption come what may

You gave a solemn promise
To leave without a trace
You kept your word regardless
Dissolving into space

We knew we couldn't be together
And it was wrong that we did not resist
We knew it was the last adventure
But how the time we had is sorely missed

Now you've disappeared forever
Like the ghosts of yesterday
Banished to the land of never

Now we've ended our endeavour
Like the ghosts of yesterday
Leaving emptiness forever
No redemption come what may

Now you've disappeared forever
Like the ghosts of yesterday
Banished to the land of never
Nothing left to do or say.
