

In Search Of A Ghost

The Unjust

The Pendulum is almost over
Prepare to shine for the show
First Asylum
This land of roses
In search of a ghost

Lights out!
Lights out!

Now your life turns into acting
You can't feel it changing

Berate this man
In tattered clothes
He wears the sign from abroad
First denial
Your sad and sober
In search of a ghost

Can't you walk mask less in this masquerade
(Stand down and face the reason)
Who's to answer you
Can't you walk mask less in this masquerade
(Stand down and face the reason)
Who's to answer you

Feel the crowds they're closing in
In their eyes you'll find
Who's the closes yet
Head the blocks they're crumbling
In their minds you'll find who's the closes yet

Can you taste the walls around you
Sneak inside and leak into your fabulous world
Can't taste the walls around you (Sneak inside)
Leak into your fabulous world
Yes i can't brace these walls around you
Weakened your fabulous world

I am (your pessimism)
I am (your optimism)
I am (your fame and fortune)
I am (just alone)

I can't face the world around you
'Cause now your bad
Bad
I've been excited to find you
But now you're bad
