

The Cloud Collectors

The Unjust

That's how we are, That's how we've been!
First you try and then you back in
They'll give you something to talk about
Are we back in your mind?
Are we back in your head?
Do we fashion your motive?

Carry on, you're a cloud collector
Shades of insecurity soothes you
Oh your more, than life creates you up to be true to you.
I open up your eyes everytime we dance... in the dark
Now it's over, it's over
Life is all so unpredictable

That's how we are, That's how we've been!
Paint the sky to try to fit in
Just sucking up all of the open air
Are we back in your mind?
Are we back in your head?
Do we fashion your motive?

Carry on, you're a cloud collector
Shades of insecurity soothes you
Oh your more, than life creates you up to be true to you
I open up your eyes everytime we dance... in the dark
Now it's over, it's over
Life is all so unpredictable

Carry on, you're a cloud collector
Shades of insecurity soothes you
Oh your more, than life creates you up to be!
