

What happened

The Unseen

they shut down another venue proving once again they're right we can't even police ourselves or see a show without a fight that's why

I'm so fucken sick of this scene but what you gonna do?
condemn anything you think is different that's nothing new

what happened to intelligence in the scene? maybe there was never any all right

I ain't saying we can't have no fun but would it hurt to fucking think? what seperates you from the dumb jocks? when all you do is fucking drink don't preach, learn, teach
