

Big, Wanna Be

The Used

Born ready to go
I never had my fill
I waited all my life
To push it up that hill
I've got mountains to climb
I've got shoes to fill
Fuel for my pride
And my ego to build

I wanna be big, bigger than life
I'm gonna be huge or I just won't feel right
I lift myself up, get my feet off the ground
There's no looking back now, there's no looking down
I wanna be big
I wanna be big
I wanna be big
I wanna be big

You can't ask me to stop
I push it on my own
I've been through way too much shit
To ever let this go
I'm through wasting my time
I've got cuts to heal
Fire for my pride
And my ego to kill

I wanna be big, bigger than life
I'm gonna be huge or I just won't feel right
I lift myself up, get my feet off the ground
There's no looking back now, there's no looking down
I wanna be big

I can't help but flex my influence
Build a wall for my enemies
I pushed and pulled my way to the top
And I'm glad to see you on your knees
I signed my name on the dotted line of history
It was worth the pain for what I've gained and I know—

I wanna be big, bigger than life
I'm gonna be huge or I just won't feel right
I lift myself up, get my feet off the ground
There's no looking back now, there's no looking down
I wanna be big (Big, big, big)
I wanna be big
I wanna be big (Woo)
I wanna be big

I wanna be big
