

Broken Windows

The Used

You wrote me a letter
Got laid in the fire
Deleted the moment
Of course I'll regret it

And if I could just start it over
The same thing would happen oh
You know that I could see this coming
I've been standing here on my own

Slipped right through my hands
But it caught me
Broken windows
Are all that you left me

Woah, woah
(Ahh)

I left out the reason baby
I burned up your words 'cause I already knew
Got high with the Band-Aid on your forehead
You gave me some drugs like the drugs that killed her

And if I could just start it over
The same thing would happen oh
You know that I could see this coming
I've been standing here the whole time

Slipped right through my hands
But it caught me
Broken windows
Are all that you left me

You got me running away
At the same time, I'll never go
Nightmares, could be
You saved my life

Woah oh oh
(Yeah yeah yeah)
Woah oh oh

And if I could just start it over
The same thing would happen oh
You know that I could see this coming
I've been standing here the whole time
On my own

Slipped right through my hands
But it caught me
Broken windows
Are all that you left me

You got me running away
At the same time, I'll never go
Nightmares, could be
You saved my life

Slipped right through my hands
But it caught me, yeah
Broken windows

You got me running away
At the same time, I'll never go, woah
Nightmares, could be
You saved my life

Woah oh oh
(Yeah yeah yeah)
Woah oh oh
(Ahh)

And if I could just start it over
(Na na na)
You know that I could see this coming
I've been standing here the whole...
