

Nothing but You

The Vamps

Sleepless cities dead
You came crashing in just like I knew you would
No more emptiness
Dot to dot, the feelings that never existed

I'm overdosing over emotions, I know you know this
So can we skip to the good bit
When you tied me down?
Made me hostage in my house
Yeah, I'm fine, I'm backing out

If I wake up wearing nothing but you
Break into my new apartment
Take the damn keys to my favourite car
And here's the combination to the safe in the closet
It's all yours if you say that you want it
Anything you need, you got
You can have it, keep the lot
Nothing I wouldn't lose if I knew I'd

Wake up wearing nothing but you
Wake up wearing nothing but you
Wake up wearing nothing but you

Messages on read
Busy pillow talking
Till there's no words left
So come fuck up my head
And I'll let you do it over and over and over and over again

Over and over dosing
Over emotions
I know it's hopeless so can we skip to the moment
When you tie me down?
Steal every piece of me you've found
Yeah, I'm fine
We'll back it up

If I wake up wearing nothing but you
Break into my new apartment
Take the damn keys to my favourite car
And here's the combination to the safe in the closet
It's all yours if you say that you want it
Anything you need, you got
You can have it, keep the lot
Nothing I wouldn't lose if I knew I'd

Wake up wearing nothing but you
Wake up wearing nothing but you
Wake up wearing nothing but you

And maybe it's a flaw in me
'Cause honestly I'd let you do your worst
All of the headache, so sad
I let you do what you like
As long as I

Wake up wearing nothing but you
Break into my new apartment
Take the damn keys to my favourite car
And nothing I wouldn't lose if I knew I'd
Wake up wearing nothing but you
