

I Can't Wait

The Vandals

Well I know it's gonna happen so I wait for it to happen cuz it never doesn't happen to- me.

And you're giving me a headache cuz your clingy and pathetic and I know I got to cut you free.

I can't wait, can't wait there's no escaping-

I'm so over us. I can't wait, I can't take it-

just kick me in the face and go and have some stupid fun.

Well you have all this potential why must you be such a simpleminded, insecure, smothering freak.

And you'll soon be well aware there's no reason you care and I give it maybe bout a week.

I can't wait, can't wait there's no escaping-

I'm so over us. I can't wait, I can't take it-

just kick me in the face and go and have some stupid fun.

Leave the house and meet someone.

I'm sure you'll find good times with someone, anyone but me,

I won't make scene, just tell me you're leaving and I'll just act OK- I cant wait.

Well I know it's gonna happen so I wait for it to happen cuz it never doesn't happen to- me

And I want for you to want to wanna go because you think ought to.

So I can finally frigging breathe.

I can't wait, can't wait there's no escaping-

I'm so over us. I can't wait, I can't take it-

just kick me in the face and go and have some stupid fun.

Leave the house and meet someone.

Someone's sure to like you, don't tell 'em you're a psycho, in 14 years we'll go have lunch.
