Reach

The Veer Union

I find it hard to face the day
Wish it all would wash away
The memories of yesterday won't go away
Why did I have to say goodbye?
I'm lying here alone
Now I'm lying here alone

Suddenly, something's coming over me
Something that I couldn't see
With everything inside, I reach out for you
I confess, I never knew I wanted this
Help me in this loneliness
Somewhere deep inside, I reach out for you

I just want to disappear
Somewhere far away from here
I just need the clouds to clear, in my head
Will this be my final fear?
I'm lying here alone
Now I'm lying here alone

Suddenly, something's coming over me
Something that I couldn't see
With everything inside, I reach out for you
I confess, I never knew I wanted this
Help me in this loneliness
Somewhere deep inside, I reach out for you
I'm reaching out for you

Why'd I have to wait
This words I said too late
Iou left me alone, you left me alone
Why'd I have I have to wait
This words I said too late?
You left me alone, you left me alone
Alone
Alone
Alone

Suddenly, something's coming over me
Something that I couldn't see
With everything inside, I reach out for you
I confess, I never knew I wanted this
Help me in this loneliness
Somewhere deep inside, I reach out for you
I reach for you, I reach for you
I, I'm reaching out for you
