

Soul of the Beautiful

The Veer Union

Please, don't let go
Soul of the beautiful, soul of the beautiful

Can you tell me that this is not the end
Can you hear me, can you hear me
You've been living a life I can't comprehend
Believe me, believe me
Wish I could be your light, deep in the dark
So I could help you fight, through the hardest part
Just tell me that this is not the end
Just hold on, just hold on

May your dreams all grow in the garden
Of Eden
With the sun and the moon you'll blossom
I believe
You'll see the summer leaves turn to autumn
So don't let go, please, don't let go
Just don't go

Soul of the beautiful
Please, don't let go
Please, don't let go
Soul of the beautiful
You're too young to not see tomorrow
You're too young
(Soul of the beautiful)
(Soul of the beautiful)

I'm holding the tears I have within
Believe me, believe me
Can you tell me this wish is not pretend
Can you hear me, can you hear me
When you're feelin' the dark come creepin' in
Let me be your spark to the gasoline
Just tell me that this is not the end
Just hold on, just hold on

May your dreams all grow in the garden
Of Eden
With the sun and the moon you'll blossom
I believe
You'll see the summer leaves turn to autumn
So don't let go, please, don't let go

Soul of the beautiful
Please, don't let go
Please, don't let go
Soul of the beautiful
You're too young to not see tomorrow

Every moment you are breathing in
You light the flame of hope in us again
Every single soul you've touched within
The memories of you will never end

Because your soul is so beautiful
(Soul of the beautiful)
(Soul of the beautiful)

May your dreams all grow in the garden
Of Eden
With the sun and the moon you'll blossom
I believe

Soul of the beautiful
(Soul of the beautiful)
(Soul of the beautiful)
You're to young
Soul of the beautiful
You're to young to not see tomorrow
