

Love Makes You Feel Ten Feet Tall

The Velvet Underground

Things aren't what they seem I'm always drifting into dream It's just a silly scene everything I do ends up in dream

But it's not what you say and you do that makes it look hard of what your feelin' It's just what you say to do that makes me feel like your head is real and down

Oh, and love makes you feel, oh, ten foot tall
Oh, and love makes you feel ten foot tall

It's not a funny scene but I'm always drifting, oh, into dreams, ah It's not a love affair but I'm just drifting into air

But it's not what you say and you do
oh, that makes it seem like a certain party It's just all of that you do that makes me feel that you kidding, way too smart

Oh, and, love makes you feel ten foot tall
Oh, and love makes you feel ten foot tall
like this

'Cause love makes you feel ten foot tall
'Cause love makes you feel ten foot tall
