

I Don't Wanna Wait

The War on Drugs

I don't wanna wait, I'm lying on the floor
You're a prisoner of love, mmh
I don't wanna change, I'm right behind the door
I'm bloodied, but I'm used, mmh

I don't wanna wait but I'm turning to you
I'll starve, am I breaking you down? Ooh
Mmh

I don't wanna break everything, let me offer my only hope
Like a snowflake dancing down an empty road
I don't wanna change, but I'm running out of time
I got lost in the darkness, thought I'd get somewhere
But I slowly disconnected from my own best friend

I don't wanna wait, yeah, but I'm running to you
I'm starving, am I breaking you down over nothing?
Show a little faith, yeah, but I'm running to you, baby
I'm starving, am I breaking you down over nothing?

All I've lost and all I've found, would you understand?
All I really needed was your heaven hand
All this feeling lonesome, tiresome, struggling
Would you care any longer? And it carries me back to you

I don't wanna wait, yeah, when I'm running to you
I'm starving, am I breaking you down over nothing?
Show a little faith, yeah, when I'm running to you
I'm starving, am I breaking you down over nothing?

I don't wanna wait
