A Song for the Life

The Waterboys

I don't drink as much as I used to 'Cause lately that just ain't my style. And the hard times don't hurt like they ought'a They pass quickly like when I was a child.

And lately I've learnt how to listen To a sound like the sun going down In the magic that morning is bringing There's a song for the life I have found

It keeps my feet on the ground

Now the midsummer days ain't so heady They just drift like a breeze through my mind. And nothing appears in a hurry As if to make up for some old long-lost time

And lately I've learnt how to listen To a sound like the sun going down In the magic that morning is bringing There's a song for the friends I have found

They keep my feet on the ground They keep my feet on the ground They keep my feet on the ground
