In Search of a Rose

The Waterboys

Where will I wander and wonder Nobody knows But wherever I'm a-going I'll go In search of a rose

Whatever the will of the weather And whether it shines or snows Wherever I'm a-going I'll go In search of a rose

I don't know where it's found I don't mind As long as the world spins around I'll take my time

I'll savour the softness of summer I'll wrap up when winter blows And wherever I'm going I'll go In search of a rose
