

Something That Is Gone

The Waterboys

Something that is gone
Something that is gone

Something that I had just yesterday
But where I must have laid it, I really couldn't say
Something that was right but now is wrong
Something that is gone

Something that I lost
Something that I lost

Something that I cradled in my hand
Something rather special that pertained to all my plans
I'm left here wondering what on earth it was Something that I lost

Something that I missed
Something that I missed

I've looked all around my room but it's not here
How can a thing of permanence so swiftly disappear
Something is the cause of all of this
Something that I missed