

Tenderfootin'

The Waterboys

You're tenderfootin' baby
you're tenderfootin' baby
you're tenderfootin' baby
when you should be ballin' around You're tenderfootin' baby you got your tender feet flat back on the ground

Yeah, you're tenderfootin' baby places that you don't belong You're tenderfootin' baby, baby, baby
places that you don't belong
You better run baby when you hear this song

doin' things somebody like you ought not to do You're tenderfootin' baby doin' things mama never told you to I'd be on the train baby if I was you!

You're tenderfootin' baby
turnin' the lights down low In the morning someone will be leanin' over you and sayin' I told you so because you will be hurt by what you don't know
