

Scared To Live

The Weeknd

When I saw the signs, I shoulda let you go
But I kept you beside me
And if I held you back, at least I held you close
Should have known you were lonely
I know things will never be the same
Time we lost will never be replaced
I'm the reason you forgot to love

So don't be scared to live again
Be scared to live again
No, don't be scared to live again
Be scared to live again

You always miss the chance to fall for someone else
'Cause your heart only knows me
They try to win your love, but there was nothing left
They just made you feel lonely (Hey)

I am not the man I used to be
Did some things I couldn't let you see
Refuse to be the one who taints your heart

So don't be scared to live again
Be scared to live again
No, don't be scared to live again
Be scared to live again (hey)

I hope you know that (Oh), I hope you know that (Oh)
I'll be praying that you find yourself
I hope you know that (Oh), I hope you know that (Oh)
We fell apart right from the start

I should have made you my only
When it's said and done

So don't be scared to live again
Be scared to live again
I said, don't be scared to live again
Be scared to live again (Hey)

I hope you know that (Oh), I hope you know that (Oh)
I'll be praying that you find yourself
I hope you know that (Oh), I hope you know that (Oh)
We fell apart right from the start
