

Love\'s Calling

The Whispers

Won't you stay tonight
I want your body close tonight
Let's greet the morning light making love
And ooh, I wanna be all you'll ever need
Let you please you in the sleep making love

I know you feel the same so why don't we let it happen
There's just a chance that this could be everlasting
Love is calling you and me
Baby, can't you see
That we treasure every moment we're together
Love is calling you and I
Girl, tonight's the night for love

You know the time has come just like the rising sun
There is nowhere to run from love
And please don't say a thing
Come and lay here next to me
Feel my love, take my love

I know you feel the same so why don't we let it happen
There's just a chance that this could be everlasting love
Oh, love is calling you and me
Baby, can't you see
That we treasure every moment we're together
Love is calling you and I
Girl, tonight's the night for love

Surrender your love

Lady Love is calling you and me
Baby, can't you see
That we treasure every moment we're together
Love is calling us and love
Lady Love is a pleasure impossible to measure
It would be a sin not to treasure every moment we're together
Love, sweet love, tonight
