

Hideous Heart

The White Buffalo

Transfixed on a sin
It's always watching
It shivers my skin
I cannot shake from its sight
Translucent and blue
Shares never blinking
Fueled by booze
Gets me to thinking it's right
The beating is bursting my brain
Punishing, pulling apart
The pounding, it drives me insane
Please silence this hideous heart

The madness it grins
Burns me like matches
Blood running thin
Haunting me day and night
Shadows like hymns
From hell and ashes
Calling me, calling me
'Bury the evil eye'
Drumming erupts in my brain
Punishing, pulling apart
The pounding, it drives me insane
Please silence this hideous heart
