

Lake Of Piss

The Wildhearts

Feeling underlined
A bad case of loving you now
Take a helping hand
Just pushed it and crushed it
It can't be undone, it's so dumb
Living life unsung

So run
Take what you can and just go
Forget what you had it won't show
This feeling of hating so bad
Compared to what you had

When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss
When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss

Get it right this time
And pick up the pieces you find
Cut it from your mind
Don't take it, just break it
You're caught in this life. It's so wrong
Trying to belong

So run
Take what you can and just go
Forget what you had it won't show
This feeling of hating so bad
Compared to what you had

When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss
When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss

So run
Take what you can and just go
Forget what you had it won't show
This feeling of hating so bad
Compared to what you had

When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss
When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss
When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss
When you sell your soul down on a lake of piss
Screaming this is piss, screaming this is piss

This is piss, screaming this is piss
