

The Bridge

The Winery Dogs

Why do I feel like I know you?
I know where you wanna go
I've got new things to show you
You're prime, don't you wanna walk over water?
From morocco to gibraltar, let's saunter

Rise, we all stand before the alter
You oughtta know, I ain't gonna let you falter
And when it's time to die
We're going right back where we started where we all did

Sing to me your lullabies
Share all your secrets with me
I'll bend to your hearts desire
Step with me, cross the bridge

Time, we all feel like we're chasing
And when you're feeling low, are you all into blaming?
Life, what's the meaning you created for your fortune?

Sing to me your lullabies
Share all your secrets with me
I'll bend to your hearts desire
Step with me, cross the bridge

Sing to me your lullabies
Share all your secrets with me
I'll bend to your hearts desire
Step with me, cross the bridge to the light
And see eternity in my eyes?
And for eternity you will be mine
