

Freaking Out

The Wrecks

In the bathroom, on my back
There's a picture on the wall of Kanye West
He's staring at me, he's staring at me
I'm freaking out, I'm freaking out
I'm on the lawn, It's almost three
I look around, I look at her, she looks at me
She's suspicious, she's suspicious
I'm freaking out, I'm freaking out

I feel fine, the best I've felt in quite a while
I feel fine, waited for this all my life
Save my soul, I swear I may never die
I feel fine, I'm freaking out, and I feel fine

I'm feeling fine
I found a flower, it's in my shoe and it is mine
Things are fine now, yeah it's alright
And all these god damn people in the world
They're all just getting by
I'm in the back room, she's with a guy
He's selling happiness and hopefulness
One bag at a time
I'm standing up, I'm sitting down
I'm freaking out, I'm freaking out

I feel fine, the best I've felt in quite a while
I feel fine, waited for this all my life
Save my soul, I swear I may never die
I feel fine, I'm freaking out, and I feel fine

I'm all alone, afraid of my life
I just want a home, wouldn't that be nice?
I'm all alone, afraid of my life
I just want a home, wouldn't that be nice?
I'm all alone, afraid of my life
I just want a home, wouldn't that be nice?

I feel fine, the best I've felt in quite a while
I feel fine, waited for this all my life
Save my soul, I swear I may never die
I feel fine, I'm freaking out, and I feel fine

I feel fine, I'm freaking out, and I feel fine
