

Letters & Postcards

The Years Gone By

If i would be everything you ever wanted
you ever needed
i'd be so far away from this photograph and so close to my heart the states that separate us are what makes this so hard

and we've got it all
to every letter to every post card baby we've said it all the words that hurt that mean so much to me

press rewind turn back this tape just slow down or your never gonna get it right i can sing the lines to let you know the break before the fall or the time it takes to recreate and sing them in this song

baby we've said it all

baby we've said it all

baby we've said it all

baby we've said it all, said it all along
