

A Moment in Time

The Zombies

All my beginnings
That precious I find
Lead me to sorrow
Or happiness incline
Love is the answer
No question in my mind
Some things will always remain

Some times I stumble
And try to have it all
Let me be reckless
But catch me when I fall
The longest journey
Still has to have a start
Let me reach out with my heart

Like a rolling cloud
It leaves me blind
Feeling for the breath of angels
Trying to find that crooked line
To this moment in time

Look in the mirror
There's nothing that I see
A ghostly illusion
Is staring back at me
Life is a stage where
We all just act a part
Let me reach out with my heart

Like a rolling cloud
It leaves me blind
Reaching for the taste of freedom
Let me find that crooked line
To this moment in time
