

Leave Me Be

The Zombies

If it seems that I'm too quiet, that's 'cause I'm missing her
My mind tells me I have to fight, but I can't help missing her

You better leave me alone, you better leave me alone
Until I can think about her without feeling sorry for myself
You better leave me be 'til I don't need her anymore
I don't wanna meet again until I'm sure I'm over her

By myself, feeling tired and wanting, is not like I thought it would be
Love just cannot end at parting, my world's dropped from under me

You better leave me alone, you better leave me alone
Until I can think about her without feeling sorry for myself
You better leave me be 'til I don't need her anymore
I don't wanna meet again until I'm sure I'm over her

Oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh woh
Oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh woh
