Empty

Theatre of Tragedy

Empty They might say this never happened I'd say it just did Never have I felt it stronger Someone's wrong and I am right In a world of disillusion Loitering away your time There's no harm in reconstruction Paint the world in black and white Beyond redemption won't exist Redeploy your mind Find your strength and recuperate Reflections in an open mind Nestling fly with me Find a way to see... [Chorus 2]
