

Courage not of this earth in your eyes
Faith from far beyond lies deep inside
With your life you dedicate with your death you permeate
Frozen hearts and unbelieving minds

Watch the whole world watch
See the whole world see
Courage into sleep
Life and death supremacy

A chosen soul, under control from high above
The final test shall soon be passed
Heaven's pride dwells deep inside
But now will sprout its wings and fly
They see His face shine in your eyes
As the whole world sees
You take the bullet, and take your place
In the gallery of heroes

Peace not understood by human minds
Of origin beyond the realms of time
Silent strength and fervency
Living faith for all to see
Legacy of glory left behind

Watch the whole world watch
See the whole world see
Turn their eyes above
Omnipresent end of mockery

The final test shall soon be passed
Heaven's pride dwells deep inside
But now will sprout its wings and fly
They see His face shine in your eyes
As the whole world sees
You take the bullet, and take your place

Speak no wrath in silence make your mark
Light piercing this all-consuming dark
Salt, to preserve and create thirst
Life continues, freedom from the curse
Crowned with a holy crown, my friend
Race completed, faith kept to the end
See the millions who have faced this fate
Greet you in your glory at the gate

Unashamed
Speak the name
Life fulfilled
Heaven gained
Edify
Testify

Standing tall
Glorify
Life laid down
Martyr's crown
Greatest friend
Soul unbound
Broken chain
Christ proclaimed
Hold the torch
Raise the flame

Pure soul flying free
Legend now to be
Closing helpless eyes
As the temple dies
Glorified in love
You turn it all above
Power not of you
Courage shining through

Watch the whole world watch

[Repeat chorus]
