

I felt a hand
Warming deep around her
And it always makes me wonder
Was it you?
I met somebody else
Brushing off in laughter,
It felt an awful lot like it was you

Was it you who caught my attention?
Was it you who showed me any place but here
I'd like to see you go

I see BLU
Underwater next to you
The seven seas don't have a clue
Of where to Hide someone like you,
I see BLU
Underwater next to you
Every wave brings me bad news

I'm off the deep end
It holds me so much closer
I'm drowning in a cloud like no one knew

Was it you who caught my attention?

Was it you who showed me any place but here
I'd like to see you go

I see BLU
Underwater next to you
The seven seas don't have a clue
Of where to Hide someone like you,
I see BLU
Underwater next to you,
Every wave brings me bad news

I'm scaling half the ocean
Burying your name
But I found the seas all frozen after coming all this way

I see BLU
Underwater next to you
The seven seas don't have a clue
Of where to Hide someone like you,
I see BLU
Underwater next to you
Every wave brings me bad news
