Thievery Corporation

Manipulating masses you talk out your asses do you know what you say Manufacturing passes and everybody is asking what we need today I'll bring you new and there's no hook I have no luck welcome to new
and I'll recruit you if you want to come with me scream out at the top of your lungs I want to be free can you sing
there is no hook we have no luck and just for once you suddenly you are blind and alone with your mind can you say I'm free?
can you say I'm free?
We understand that it is difficult to undo the dreams of destruction now strongest when you know it's true I am asking you to go back to the pyramidal tracks of where you know you do not like the knowledge that has always been imparted to you such high and love and sweet you grow I promise you that it's not far just hiding in the heart of the heart and all embracing everything from arms to charms... yeah I guess that crystals are beneath me No... they're only subliminally pushed away we cannot read the, got to work for what your giving in this world fear transmission your my girls and my boys of the days you are not the puppets or the slaves or the toys we are working towards the mark nothing else makes as much sense as this so I will continue on my mission with the risk to be free, come with me and our goals are transparent to the sea and our hearts are parently content to me I'm free
come with me
come with me
I'm free
