He's always got a problem, he's got to work it out wrong or right

I still can recall when we were small how he tried his best to warn us all

2. This living on his own has turned his heart to stone and it's all pain
He sits out on his own and eats his heart out alone in the pouring rain
Now who in the world would have know
That just a few years ago his love could have grown and grown

Through the rain, the sleet and snow

But the rain, the sleet and snow chills the heart and kills the soul

So the let the cold winds blow

What he doesn't see he doesn't know

R: I remember him when we were friends, when we were young, way back then
I recall it all when we were small how he tried his best to warn us all
I remember it still, I always will when we were friends way back then
I recall it all when we were small how he tried his best to warn us all

3. The man is a winner for the first time in his life
He looks a little thinner but he says "Hey that doesn't matter"
But if you look closely
You'll see a cold smug self-satisfactory smile behind

And now that he has won it doesn't matter how or which way it was done

Now that he's in control, revenge is in his heart and soul

The power is at his fingertips, vengeance is on his lips
But the power he fought to control now has got him in its grips

R: I remember him when we were friends, when we were young, way back then
I recall it all when we were small how he tried his best to warn us all
I remember it still, I always will when we were friends way back then
I recall it all when we were small how he tried his best to warn us all
I remember him when we were friends, when we were young, way back then
But now we're all grown up and we're strangers
You see, bit by bit, part by part, we slipped and slipped
Till we'd grown apart and now we're strangers.
