10 Days Late

Third Eye Blind

Click your heals And feel you come for me Care free, she's got something big to tell me At the ocean Talk back at the ocean There's no simple way To let you know Funny how she always cried out daddy I got a big surprise, she said I'm in trouble now and it cannot wait She's ten days late Boy, your life got complicated Well I can't wait To see this through She's ten days late Ten days late Low ride bicycles go cruising by I laugh I don't even know why Talk back at the ocean Consequence and ozone Catch a glow Oh no, baby, oh no no Give me a minute now To figure out my state Oh I know She's ten days late And I don't know Where to take it But it's still great Knowing you She's ten days late Ten days late Time has come for you to choose Baby daddies keep your boo Many blessings come to you Baby daddy keep your boo Your eyes look to me for what to do I can't lie I don't know At the ocean Talk back at the ocean No one's laughing Now what do I say I walk away but, oh no Don't go At the ocean Talk back at the ocean Give me a minute now To figure out my state She's ten days late And I'm never going to fade it I guess I'll always be Knowing you Knowing you Knowing you
