

2X Tigers

Third Eye Blind

There's no way to get out of this
Without a fight, without it
There's no way to let it, let it burn
All the thieves and deniers
We need twice as many tigers

I remember now, remember now, when the sound is fleeting
And the sound of the ocean when your heart is beating
I know the sound at the bottom of the ocean

So tell me now, how are you gonna fuck with that?
Maybe you'll get your marks in, but I am gonna win

Don't think, tick, tick, maybe I'm a time bomb
I'm exploding right now, you have got the time wrong

When you look back and you feel that hum
And remember all the days, all the days to come
You'd be glad when you said

Amplify the moment, get your fingers on the trigger
Better scratch beneath the surface, get yourself in something bigger
You need it
That's what you needed, oh no

Amplify the moment, get your fingers on the trigger
Better scratch beneath the surface, get yourself in something bigger
You need it
That's what you needed, oh no

I like the feeling, like the feeling with your hands up
I like the feeling, like the feeling with your hands up
I like the feeling, like the feeling with your hands up
Do it now even if you don't

I said, courage is a weapon
Courage is a weapon
Don't put your weapon down
Don't put your weapon down

Woah, woah, one drop, woah, woah, hit bottom
Woah, woah, one drop 'til you hit bottom
Woah, woah, one drop 'til you hit bottom
Woah, woah, one drop 'til you hit the bottom

Woah, woah, one drop 'til you hit bottom
Woah, woah, one drop 'til you hit bottom
Woah, woah, one drop 'til you hit bottom
Woah, woah, one drop...

I like the feeling, like the feeling with your hands up
I like the feeling, like the feeling with your hands up
I like the feeling, like the feeling with your hands up
Do it now even if you don't

I said, courage is a weapon
Courage is a weapon

Don't put your weapon down
Don't put your weapon down
