

Back to Zero

Third Eye Blind

Tomorrow I'm going to move and change my clothes,
Just black on black and nothing else
I'll just let it go

Oh, tonight I'm gonna scream and medicate,
'Cause it's too late to beg someone for some money
And emptiness is filling me

I'm gonna move back to zero
I'm gonna leave no doubt
I'm gonna zero you out

In the bold days
Just a substitute
For calling you, for stalling you
Gonna move back with some friends in black
Rebuild my life at 17th and Capp

I'm gonna move back to zero
I'm gonna leave no doubt
I'm gonna zero you out

I'm gonna move back to zero
And in the moment that I let go
I'm back to zero
And I take on a life of my own
I'm back to zero

And a song, a song starts to grow
Back to zero
And a song, a song
Don't let sorrow bring you down

I've been in love with her
I speak in perfect Japanese
Oh, no, no, are you gonna do it?
I think I'm through now
I'll mention all the black jeans.

Go, go, go, go, go! Whoo!

Back to zero! (I'm gonna move back to zero)
Back to zero! (I'm gonna leave no doubt. I'm gonna zero you out)

Haunted
No guarantees, sometimes it's enough to breathe
And get through one more day of missing you

Get through one more day of missing you
