

Queen of Daydreams

Third Eye Blind

I'd never wanted to know someone as much as I want you Never wanted to break through all of the secrets keeping me and you
From a better life and a better moment
If it showed up, could you own it? Could you?

I'd never wanted to stay somewhere so much as here today
Doing nothing with you means more than I can say
Did you see that cloud? It's like a UFO
Lenticularis or so I hear
You connect me to the atmosphere

You're like a queen of daydreams
You're the queen of daydreams
Ah ah ah ah Ah ah ah ah Ah ah ah ah

You said you've never been in love
I'd like to think you're thinking of me
When you're wishing for a brand new start
And all we want's to pin down the heart
You're much too young for moments come and gone
You said can you know me now from our songs
I don't know but you can sing along

Cause you're the queen of daydreams
That's what you
You're the queen of daydreams
That's what you
You're the queen of daydreams
Ah ah ah ah Ah ah ah ah

In your heart now, can you feel it?
In your heart, you make it real

You're the queen of daydreams
You're the queen of daydreams
You're the queen of daydreams
