

Who Am I

Third Eye Blind

Who am I to you?
Who am I to you?

Well the signs tell me it is time to go
And the signs tell me in stereo
That you and I, we are wasted
Cohabiting now that we're through
Still I'm waiting for the feeling of living

Without you
I-I-am
Without you
I-I-am

Who am I to you?
Who am I to you?

Well these signs tell me panic's setting in
Isn't it time, time to live again?
I still want you to approve of me
'Cause these days won't be as good as the ones you love me
Now I'm waiting for the feeling of living

Without you
I-I-am
Without you
I-I-am
(The days come back again!)

I'mma look in your eyes when the chance is thin
You starve me down, now I'm a skeleton

But I still want you to approve of me
'Cause these days won't be as good as the ones you loved me
Now I'm waiting for the feeling of living

Without you
I-I-am
When the days come back without you
I am, I am, I am, I am

Who am I to you?
Who am I to you?
(I am, I am, I am, I am)
Who am I to you?

Who am I to you?
