Every breath you t...

As if I'd sing that song to you, You probably think you deserve it at the present time But if only you knew how you treated me When we were together then you might understand.

Remember the time you made me wait for a month when you had exams, which I w as cool about

But then the night you finished you barred me from all your plans And you went out with other people.

Now I'll always give you the benefit of the doubt And I think there's enough natural maturity floating around for the tension and release time to even out between two people like you and me.

And I've been thinking and since we've broken up I've realised things were mostly in your favour And a normal person wouldn't put up with this But for some stupid reason I don't wanna move on.

And now I'm stuck in a moment It's bad for my health Well I'm gone
If I don't emancipate myself

Now I gotta say that all of this is coming down on me like a tonne of bricks at this present time,

I don't have much cash,

I'm just trying to figure out the rest of my life.

But I think a lot of people would agree that all you need is a feeling of fr $\operatorname{\mathsf{eedom}}$

And when you're in emotional limbo, everything think about and do is filtered through that.

But I don't wanna make you unhappy or jealous in any way Because ultimately in life it's your own choice who you surround yourself wi th,

And I'm responsible for those things too.

And I've treated people badly at times in relationships
And maybe what you're doing is some kind of payback for all those past lives
But that also doesn't change the fact that

Now I'm stuck in a moment
It's bad for my health
Well I'm gone
If I don't emancipate myself
There's no spirit to find me
And no wishing well
Well I'm gone
If I don't emancipate myself

Set me free Alright I've gotta get myself out of this thing If its the last thing I ever do

So whatcha gonna do now?
What you gonna keep me hanging on or something are you?
You gonna keep me hanging on

'Cause I have a feeling it's all in my own mind and if I have anything to do with it

Knowing me I enjoy putting myself through this kind of trauma to a degree, H ow 'bout you?

Thought so

Maybe you shouldn't call me anymore because I need some time to get to know myself again,

Then once again we say it's final then I'm gonna miss you even more, even th e most.

I don't want you to know that I'm missing you,
Yeah let's establish even more communication breakdown and then wonder why l ater on
All the honesty and trust is gone between us.

Now I'm stuck in a moment
It's bad for my health
Well I'm gone
If I don't emancipate myself
There's no spirit to find me
And no wishing well
Well I'm gone
If I don't emancipate myself

Got to get out

Well this things been going on for too long baby

And I've got to do something for myself for a while

'Cause you've been treating me so bad for so long And it just can't go on, it can't go on.

Well I don't want you calling me oon the telephone, And I don't wanna see your face no more Yeah that's right
