

Picture Day

This Providence

This weather reflects my face rainy day
this place hurts my eyes i think i could break down and cry i enter each day with a sigh its so hard to wake when theres nothing at stake today i think im gonna break the hours drag on for what seems like days

and my thoughts wander
i guess ill wait and ill see it through it was all so hard but than i got you

another day has slipped right by ive done nothing just watched her quiet im stuck in here for a while ill be a moment in your eyes well being here is so hard to bear

cause the hours drag on for what seems like days
and my thoughts wander

da dada dada da
da dada dada dadada

look at me with my fake smile it feels so wrong you got me im on your leash soon ill be gone

rainy day
and this place hurts my eyes
