

Inner Cosmos

This Romantic Tragedy

Mind may i matter
What's the point to all of this
Our world is in the crisis
For lack of consciousness

I've got all of the answers
Within inner cosmos infinite ascension
I am love hidden with sun
A universe in a single body

Take your thought down!

Take your thgought and drop them to the floor!
As your ego walks out the door
There's only so much i can take
There's only so much i can take

Inner cosmos infinite ascension!

What's this feeling in my bones
This perspective of the objective
Look where we have ended up the objective, the objective
(the objective, what's the objective?)x4

Vindicate the kaleidoscope
to the blind
All the sings inside
I think it's better if i didn't try!

Mind may i matter
What's the point to all of this
Our world is in the crisis
For lack of consciousness

Vindicate the kaleidoscope
to the blind
All the sings inside
I think it's better if i didn't try!

Now we're left with all!
Now we're left with all we needed!
